

Required Documentation for High School Completion Verification:

If our FAFSA was selected for verification of High School Completion Status by the Department of Education, you must review this document and provide proof of your High School Completion status. Review the information below for acceptable documentation. Submit the applicable document to the Financial Aid Office along with any other requested documents. Your financial aid will not be processed until all requested documents are received by the financial aid office.

Provide One of The Following Documents:

The documents below may be used to indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2020-2021:

- A copy of your high school diploma
- A copy of your final official high school transcripts that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript showing completion of your GED.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- If State law does not require a homeschool student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by your parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses you completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

 If you are unable to obtain any of the items listed above, you must contact the Financial Aid Office
