

2023-2024 Unusual Enrollment History Review

The Financial Aid Office has received the results of your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) indicating that you have an unusual enrollment history. Unusual enrollment history is defined as receiving federal aid funds at multiple institutions in a four year period. Complete and submit this form along with required documentation to the Financial Aid Office. Incomplete forms or conflicting information will cause delays in the processing of your aid. Instructions for looking up your student ID number are found here: How to look up your student ID number.

Enrollment History:

Have you earned credit at each college where you received financial aid in the last 4 years? "Earned credit" for the purposes of Unusual Enrollment History means that you must have completed at least one clock-hour or credit-hour at each of the colleges you have attended since the 2019-2020 academic year.

_____ Yes          _____ No

If you checked "yes" above, please attach a transcript from each institution at which you received financial aid in the last four years. Transcripts are required so that we may document the credit earned at each school.

If you checked "no" above, please attach an explanation of why you failed to earn credit at multiple schools as well as the reasons for changing schools. Wherever possible, provide documentation to support your claim. Attach transcripts from any college from which you earned credit.
